AXIS REPORTED STRIVING TO PLUG WEST WALL DEFENSES

Climax in D-Day Preparations Seen In Air Offensive

Fourth Anniversary of Nazi Drive Through the Low Countries Finds Gigantic British-American Offensive Unchecked

THREE IMPORTANT NEW PHASES ARE NOTED

London, May 10—(AP)—The Germans were reported striving hastily to tighten up their shaken western defenses on this fourth anniversary of the Nazi drive through the low countries as the gigantic British-American air campaign developed new aspects pointing toward a climax in preparation for invasion D-Day.

Thus the war in the west had swung in a full cycle, reversing the position of May 10, 1940 when the Germans, supreme in the air and on the ground, sent their legions crashing into Belgium and the Netherlands in the all-conquering blitzkrieg which led quickly to Dunkerque and the collapse of France.

With conclusive defeat in the staring him in the face, Adolf Hitler has designated 29-year-old Maj. Gen. Oberst Peltz to command German air forces in the west and ordered him to assemble a force to combat the impending Allied invasion said reliable advices from underground Europe.

Peltz, looked upon as an air genius and a prime favorite of Hitler, was given the task of keeping together a force to strike back at the invasion fleets—no matter what damage the homeland suffers in the meantime.

No matter what the Germans do, even the most conservative American and British air leaders are agreed the Allies can win full control of the air within seven to 10 days after the invasion starts.

In addition to the enormous acceleration in Allied attacks—in the first 10 days of this month there has been almost as much activity in the two previous months—here were at least three new dashes noted:

These were (1) the RAF's new attacks against German ammunition dumps and other critical concentrations, (2) the two-ply tactical bombing of both railroad junctions and airfields, and (3) he speeded up drive against railroads and bridges.

The campaign against continental air fields was aimed not only at combat planes but against aerial transport, for which the Germans have been famous.

It seemed reasonable to presume the Allied high command was repeating the process of preparation used in North Africa, where the big push was not started until the Germans' reinforcements and supply lines were wrecked or in a position where they could be wrecked shortly.

This condition, still uncrystallized, seemed to be one of the key factors in determination of the exact day for invasion.

Broadcasting a promise of deliverance to her people, Queen Wilhelmina of The Netherlands, anticipating a return to her country, said she would take a brief rest "in order to be fresh and strong for the moment when you will need me."

Belgian Premier Hubert Pierlot declared that "with all her soul and all her strength Belgium awaits the moment to take part with the United Nations in their gigantic and victorious effort."

ADMIRAL ON TRIAL

Eighth Army Thrusts Deep Wedge In Enemy Territory

By NOLAND NORGAARD

Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 10—(AP)—Still pursuing withdrawing German forces, Eighth Army troops have thrust a wedge deep into enemy territory along Italy's mountainous backbone and at last report were driving directly toward the German base at Sulmona, it was announced today.

Front advices indicated there was little or no opposition, although the Germans were said to be carrying out extensive demolitions.

A communiqué announced Allied forces had entered the town of Palena, on the little Aventino river 25 miles inland from the Adriatic and 11 miles southeast of the mountain villages of Fallasca, seven miles northeast of Palena and San Angelo, 12 miles southeast.

The Eighth Army forces also seized high ground near the hamlet (Turn to Page Nine)

Abolition of the F. S. A. Suggested

Washington, May 10—(AP)—Abolition of the Farm Security Administration was recommended by a special house committee today in a report which accused the agency of controlling its clients "to the extent of telling his children" and "how to plan his home life."

The FSA, the committee said, "has not been wisely administered and has been used as an experiment station of un-American ideas and economic and social theories of little or questionable value."

The committee, headed by Rep. Cooley (D-N.C.), emphasized that its criticism applied to the administration of Rexford Guy Tugwell and C. B. Baldwin. It commanded the recently-appointed administrator, Frank Hancock, for having made "substantial and worthwhile changes in both policies and personnel."

The well presented and much enjoyed program was the work of the following organizations: Seneca school rhythm band, McClintock first grade singers, East street grade three chorus, Johnson school grade four chorus, McClintock grade two rhythm band, home street fifth grade chorus, Seneca school seventh grade chorus, Seneca school seventh grade chorus, south street grades three and four, and combined sixth grade choruses of Lacy, South Johnson, East and McClintock buildings.

At the South street school this afternoon, a good sized audience enjoyed an operetta-play called "Uncle Sam's Visit," in which every child in school had a part. Speaking roles were taken as follows: Uncle Sam, Eugene Rowland; Miss Liberty, Diana DeMarco; The Old Woman Who Lives in a Shoe, Barbara Anderson; The Boy, Larry Ruark.

Theme of the presentation is a visit by Uncle Sam and Miss Liberty to the Old Woman and their introduction to Health Land by the first grade; Mother Goose Land, second grade; and the foreign nations with their songs and dances, grades three, four, five and six.

Warren public school music groups' observation of National Music Week got off to a good start Tuesday night when a large audience of parents and interested friends assembled in the gym at Beatty school for the concert given by grade school organizations.

NO RULING ON LEGALITY OF WARD SEIZURE

Federal Judge Holly Announces Decision After Plant Is Turned Back and Avery Takes Over

CIO ASKS EXTENSION

Chicago, May 10—(AP)—Federal Judge William H. Holly today dropped injunction litigation stemming seizure of Montgomery Ward and Company Chicago properties without ruling on legality of the federal action in taking possession.

The court told company and government counsel that he "considered the case dismissed" but would rule Friday on whether it should be recorded as dismissed with or without prejudice.

Judge Holly said he would not rule on legality of the seizure because "events have transpired which apparently have taken the case out of my hands."

Subsequently the judge told reporters he had ordered destroyed all copies of the decision he had been prepared to issue today in the injunction case. He said he "regretted having to do so," having spent a great deal of time studying the evidence and arguments submitted by government and company lawyers and preparing the ruling.

When Judge Holly said "there is nothing before me," Harold A. Smith, Ward attorney, said "how about the restraining order—the government has been operating under it, we've got to have a ruling on that."

When the judge replied that the property was back in the hands of the company and the government had moved out, Smith asked "what about this lawsuit?" referring to the temporary injunction petition.

Judge Holly said that he considered the case dismissed but that he would issue an order Friday on the question of dismissing it with or without prejudice.

The company properties are back in the hands of its management, Judge Holly said, and it is a well established fact that federal courts are not required to rule "on a moot question."

The Chicago plant was in government possession from April 26 until yesterday when Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones turned it back to the company.

The jurist made this statement after the government relinquished possession of the company's Chicago units and the properties were turned back to Board Chairman Sewell Avery.

A CIO union won a collective bargaining election at the plants last night, and followed up with a demand upon the War Labor

Four-Engined U. S. Bombers From Italy Take Up Pre-Invasion Offensive On European Fortress

SEEK AUSTRIAN TARGETS

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
London, May 10—(AP)—Four-engined U. S. bombers from Italy apparently took up the pre-invasion offensive against the European fortress today in the wake of night assaults on both Berlin and Paris by RAF Britain-based "heavies."

The German radio said fierce battles raged over the eastern Alps, possibly hearding another blow from the Mediterranean at Austrian targets.

American Thunderbolts and Marauders and RAF Bostons and Mitchells, accompanied by fighters, streamed out over Britain, smacking rail yards and airfields in France, and Belgium, carrying the offensive into its 26th straight day. But up to mid-afternoon, there were no official reports of operations by United States "heavies" from Britain which had been over the continent steadily for the last 15 days.

The RAF lost seven aircraft in its night operations. Five bombers and three fighters were lost yesterday out of nearly 1,000 lighter aircraft of the Allied expeditionary air force which joined in the 4,000-plane blow reaching from the French coast to Germany.

While British heavy bombers concentrated on military and industrial objectives in France, including an aircraft foundry and stamping plant in the Paris suburb of Gennevilliers, swift Mosquitos last night unloaded many 4,000-pound blockbusters on Berlin, still smouldering from heavy American attacks on Sunday and Monday. Mines were laid in enemy waters.

A German broadcast declared that a formation of bombers was approaching the Danube-Alps region.

RAF heavy bombers also ranged over the French channel coastal area.

Appropriation Of 15 Billion For Army Use

Washington, May 10—(AP)—President Roosevelt asked congress today for new appropriations for the army totaling $15,676,652,700, which would bring the total contemplated expenditures for military purposes up to $49,000,000,000 for the next fiscal year.

"The estimates," a White House statement said, "contemplate the maintenance and operation of an army of 7,700,000 officers, men and women on the offensive in a global war through June 30, 1945."

In addition to the $15,000,000,000 in new appropriations, the statement explained, there will be available in the fiscal year starting July 1, $32,607,263,800 of unobligated balances from current appropriations.

The $49,000,000,000 outlay for the next fiscal period compares with a preliminary budget estimate, submitted to congress last January, of $32,300,000,000, and with a $71,500,000,000 program approved by congress for the present fiscal year.

The White House said the large carry-over of 1944 funds, had been made possible primarily by a reduction in the projected strength of the Army, a reduction in shipping losses, and a "substantial reduction" in unit costs of war materials because of volume production.

The new budget figure provides for 200,000 members of the WACS, more than treble the number now on the rolls.

The biggest single item for any branch of the Army included in the total $49,000,000,000 program is $12,610,000,000 for the air force. The ordnance department is listed for $8,599,000,000.

Mr. Roosevelt told congress it would take $12,690,000,000 for pay, travel and allowances for the army, plus nearly $2,900,000,000 for the army's food bill.

Attempts Gas Route Suicide But Is Foiled

John Upgraft, of Tiona, who is also known in the community as John Smith, is under observation and care today in Warren General Hospital as the result of what is termed by investigating officials as an attempted suicide.

Upgraft, aged about 70 years and under the care of a physician for chronic ailment, lives alone. A neighbor, Lonnie Winger, who comes frequently to perform errands, called at the home about two o'clock Tuesday afternoon and, receiving no answer at the front door, entered the building through a shed at the rear.

He discovered the occupant had placed a blanket over himself in such manner that he was inhaling rapidly fumes from a nearby gas stove to which he had attached a length of hose.

Winger notified the Pennsylvania State Police barracks here and Upgraft was removed to Warren General Hospital in the Peterson ambulance.

At the hospital today, it is stated his condition is considered poor.

No immediate family has been located by the investigating police officer.

MOTOR WAS BURNED

A seven and one-half horse power motor at the Lewis Meat Market burned out this morning at 6:57 and a fire alarm resulted. The fire was soon stopped. The motor is used for the operation of the cooling system in the market and it is thought that it stuck when automatically turned on, became overheated and burned. The loss is quite a heavy one as there will be some difficulty in replacing the motor at the present time. War time conditions make a motor of this type hard to secure.

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Police were summoned to the Baker rooming house at the rear of the Metzger-Wright building last night. Mrs. Baker had found Gordon Taylor, well-known bricklayer unconscious on the floor of the bath room. An ambulance was called and the man taken to the hospital. Examination disclosed that he had suffered a heart attack. Later reports from the hospital were to the effect that he was improved in condition. Taylor had been ill for some time past, and recently returned to Warren after spending some time in a veterans hospital.

It Happened In WARREN--48 YEARS AGO

This is the SIXTH of a series of pictures of Warren 48 years ago—in 1896—when life was more leisurely, entertainment more naive, and names-in-the-news recall the happy times of an earlier generation. The following are quoted from the Warren Evening Mirror, 1896:

A pair of bicycle trousers has been evolved which, by pulling a string, can be transformed from the knickerbocker to the long garment, and vice versa.

—by "the long garment" do they mean a pair of pants?

A boy asked his father the difference between knickerbockers and bloomers. "My boy," said he, "when they're cut so that you can't tell whether the wearer is coming toward you or going away from you, they are bloomers."

—knickerbockers a fairly skimpy job

Annual Anniversary Party Is Held By Metzger-Wright Co.

In honor of the forty-eighth birthday the Metzger-Wright Company entertained its personnel to a dinner at the Marconi Outing Club.

If the year were either 1942 or 1943, this would have been the time of the opening of the annual Anniversary Sale, but as William H. Wright, President of the company explained, this year the government has asked all stores to refrain from holding special events sales to stimulate buying, so for this year the Metzger-Wright Company has given up its Anniversary Sale.

Mr. Wright told of the happenings of the last year, how the store personnel had enlisted in the different War Drives. In the Fourth War Loan it exceeded its quota of $15,000 by $45,850 making a grand total of sales made of $60,850. Mr. Wright said he was exceptionally proud of this showing and hoped that they could do even better in the Fifth War Loan Drive.

It was decided by the coworkers to send a message of goodwill to the two absent members in the service. A cablegram was dispatched to Sergeant Allan Johnson, somewhere in England, and a telegram to Pfc. Lewis Sadler in Michigan. These messages were composed by Miss Clara Weidert and Henry Holmlund and read by Mr. Holmlund.

At the head table sat the Honor Club members, in the order of their election. Those present were Mrs. Myrta Dalrymple, 1930; Miss Harriett Booth, 1931; L. C. LeVan, 1932; Miss Clara Weidert, 1933; Miss Matilda Eckardt, 1935; Miss Ruth Woodin, 1939; Mrs. Katherine Blocher, 1941; and Miss Elizabeth Anderson, 1943.

During the past year, the first break in the Honor Group was made, death taking three of its members, Miss Emma Fehlman, William Benson and Mrs. Minnie H. Wright. This year, the management chose three new members to replace these. In a guarded way, Mr. Wright introduced each of these members, leaving the revealing of their names to L. C. LeVan. This is always a tense moment as no one knows who is to be the honored one. In a few well-chosen words Mr. LeVan introduced each and Miss Elizabeth Anderson, choice of 1943, pinned on them the coveted Honor Club emblem.

The first to receive the emblem was Claude Landers, buyer of shoes, who came to the Warren store from Sheffield in 1931 where he had been a valued executive since 1916. The next name to be revealed was that of Mrs. Leota Clark, who came to the store in 1934 as a cashier in the office later becoming personnel and advertising manager. Mrs. Margaret Wright was the third one to receive the Honor Emblem as the successor of Mrs. Minnie Wright. Mrs. Wright was at one time publicity and sales promotion director of the store.

After the awarding of the Honor Club emblem the business session ended and a social time was enjoyed by all those present.

Decision Made In Election At Thomas Plant

Philadelphia, May 10—(AP)—Local 1328, International Association of Machinists, has been recognized by the Regional War Labor Board as the collective bargaining agency of all employees of the Thomas Flexible Coupling Co. at Warren.

In an opinion announced yesterday by RWLB Vice Chairman Alexander H. Fry, it was explained that the union won an election conducted by the RWLB last June 7 by a vote of 35 to 33. This vote followed an earlier consent election in which the vote was 41 to 37 against the union.

The union filed objections, charging the company had improperly influenced the election, and a second ballot resulted.

In answer to the company contention that the NWLB was without jurisdiction, Fry cited a number of cases in which that board and regional boards had assumed jurisdiction. He declared the company's position "arbitrary, likely to interrupt production, and motivated by desire to postpone bargaining with the union."

"This procedural procrastination is a peacetime luxury which must be sacrificed in the interests of war production," the RWLB concluded.

St. Paul's Lutheran church was filled with members and friends last evening for the reception and welcome extended the new pastor, Rev. Nore Gustafson, and his family, recently arrived from Stamford, Conn.

The program, presented in the church auditorium, opened with a hymn, "The Church's One Foundation", followed by Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. Wallace Johnson, of Youngsville, who also pronounced the benediction at its close.

A string trio composed of Mrs. Frederick Olson, Mrs. Emmett Morrison and Miss Charlotta Erickson was accompanied by Mrs. Emil Jacobson for special selection and was augmented later by Mrs. Stuart Perrin for music during the social hour.

Words of welcome were extended by the former supply pastor, Rev. E. P. Nordgren, of Kane; by Hilding Lundahl for the board of administration; by Harold Passinger, superintendent of the Sunday school; by Dr. H. A. Rinard, of First Lutheran parish; by Mrs. Harold T. Nelson for women's organizations of the parish.

Other special numbers included a contralto solo by Mrs. Everett Borg, singing "Bless This House" by Brahe; a vocal solo by Earl Erickson, "Come Ye Blessed" by Scott; piano-organ number, "The Swan" by Saint-Saens, played by Miss Signe Nordgren and Mrs. Jacobson. Rev. E. S. Carlson, of Emmanuel Lutheran church in Titusville, gave the principal address.

Mrs. Gustafson was presented a gift of flowers by Carol Louise Johnson and Ludwig Peterson, master of ceremonies, presented a gift to the new minister. Pastor Gustafson responded for himself and family.

After the closing hymn, all were invited to the dining room, where refreshments were served by wives of the board of administration, headed by Mrs. Emmett Ecklund.

HOUSEWIVES TAKE UNRATIONING CALMLY

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington says that housewives apparently haven't felt any urge—because of meat unrationing—to buy out the butcher shops.

The unrationing, except on beef steaks and roasts, went into effect a week ago.

Now, after reports from all its regional offices around the country, the War Food Administration (WFA) says there has been no great buying rush.

One reason given: Before unrationing, meat points generally had been low enough to allow most families sufficient meat. This forestalled a desire to splurge when points were removed.

But it seems likely that more meat will be consumed now than before it was point free. Able to get unrationed meat as they want it, housewives can spread red points on the rationed kind.

OPA says the total anticipated supply of meat for civilians in May is 25 per cent greater than a year ago.

Two things can throw the picture out of focus:

1. Meat distribution had been geared to a rationed supply. It takes about four weeks for meat to move from packing house to neighborhood butcher shop. Any large increased buying in one city could mean less meat generally for that city until the distribution system was able to cope with it.

This may be happening now in some places, although, as noted above, according to WFA it is not general.

2. If there was heavy demand in the mid-west, near the packing plants, the areas most distant from the plants might feel a pinch. For, if prices were fairly equal around the country, the packers could save shipping expenses by selling closer to home.

A TIME FOR PRAYER

(The Bradford Era)

Several weeks ago this newspaper suggested a nation-wide call to prayer for the success of the Allied armies. It suggested that clergymen issue a call to all citizens to gather at the hour of invasion for meditation and prayer during the greatest crisis in the history of our nation.

The idea, which originated in Warren, has spread across the nation. Clergymen in many sections of the country have endorsed the proposal and the mayor of York issued a proclamation to the people of his city calling upon them to gather in prayer at the beginning of the invasion of Europe.

The plan has been endorsed by the Assembly of the Commonwealth at its special session in Harrisburg.

This newspaper recommends to the clergymen of Bradford and McKean county a universal call to all citizens to gather in prayer. It further suggests that the air raid warning system be brought into service to inform the people when the Allied armies strike in order that they may gather in their respective houses of worship to ask God's blessing upon the armies of freedom in their efforts to liberate the oppressed and persecuted peoples under Axis domination.

COMPANY I NEEDS MEN

Company I, 16th Regiment, Third Battalion, is in need of twenty men to fill the quota required under Army regulations. Since men between 17 and 50, especially those in 4-F and others who may have had military training, are eligible, it would seem there should be no difficulty in recruiting the unit to full strength. All men interested are urged to report to the State Armory, Hickory street, Tuesday or Thursday evenings. Since the company is being drilled and shaped for the annual encampment in July, it is important that the roster be filled at once. Enlistment in the Guard provides an excellent opportunity for men not eligible for duty in the armed forces overseas to serve their country in a most important assignment. Here is a challenging invitation to men of Warren and vicinity. We are confident it will not go unheeded.

For Britons awaiting D-Day and eventual victory and peace this was a memorable anniversary. It was on May 10 four years ago that Winston-Churchill replaced the late Neville Chamberlain as prime minister and began leading them through the darker days that still were to come and finally onto the road to victory.

The Watch on the Rhine

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — Gen. Douglas MacArthur's announcement that he wants no part of the Republican nomination for President wasn't any surprise here.

His close military friends said immediately: "Of course, what did we tell you all along?" Political observers said: "Of course, what else could he do after his (political) drive was all messed up by well-meaning friends and circumstances over which he had no control."

The general's declaration has left no doubt, even in the minds of his staunchest supporters, that he has taken himself out of the presidential picture.

The effect that this second major defection in the ranks of GOP presidential possibilities will have on the nomination and maybe the election is important. With the now single exception of Lt. Cmdr. Harold E. Stassen, whose backers haven't given any indication of real strength yet, it leaves the field wide open to non-military men in both parties.

That MacArthur's withdrawal leaves the field almost entirely to the governors. Including ex-Governor of Minnesota Stassen in that category, there isn't a prominently mentioned presidential or vice presidential candidate on the Republican front now who isn't one of their 26 state executives.

Although withdrawal of MacArthur has left Dewey almost the only important candidate in the field, it could have the net effect of strengthening Dewey's opposition. It may be presumed that both MacArthur and Willkie backers opposed Dewey. A coalition of these two groups might at least prevent the nomination of Dewey on an early ballot and defer it until some concessions had been made in their favor.

since the withdrawal of Wendell L. Willkie. With MacArthur following Willkie in writing himself off the slate of potential nominees, observers are confident that the Republican party now has no more than to pick a second man on the ticket. It's in an identical position now with the Democratic party—and it is merely whether the voters wish to vote for Roosevelt for a fourth term or Dewey for a first.

With nearly six months for the voters to mull over such a question, politicians feel that the vote in November is likely to be even more apathetic than was anticipated, a situation which might well result in an elected executive who wouldn't really represent the choice of the majority of the qualified voters.

The effect that this second major defection in the ranks of GOP presidential possibilities will have on the nomination and maybe the election is important. With the now single exception of Lt. Cmdr. Harold E. Stassen, whose backers haven't given any indication of real strength yet, it leaves the field wide open to non-military men in both parties.

That, unless the commander-in-chief is considered a military man. Most political observers don't consider him at all in that category, but admit that if the votes of armed forces and those closely allied with them (wives, relatives and friends) count for anything, the advantage is likely to be with the commander-in-chief if no other military man is on the ticket.

Gen. MacArthur has, in polls and opinions, been generally the first choice after Gov. Dewey

Stamp News

A THIRD United States three-cent stamp honoring the communications industries for their part in the war effort has been approved by Postmaster General Frank C. Walker and will be placed on sale May 24. The new stamp will honor the electrical industry and will be issued on the 100th anniversary of the first message transmitted by telegraph. This message, consisting of the words, "What Hath God Wrought," which will appear in the central design of the stamp, was sent by electrical transmission from the old Supreme Court room of the Capitol May 24, 1844, to Baltimore, Md.

The stamp will be placed on sale first at Washington and collectors desiring first day covers should send a maximum of 10 addressed envelopes to the Postmaster, Washington 13, D. C., with remittance to cover the cost or the stamps to be affixed.

The Post Office Department also has released the design of the railroad stamp, first of the "communications" stamps which will be issued May 10. The design features the driving of the last spike in the first transcontinental rail line at Promontory, Utah, 75 years ago. First day sales of the stamp will be at Omaha, Neb., Ogden, Utah, and San Francisco. The second of the series, honoring the steamship lines, will be placed on sale at Savannah, Ga., May 22.

A CHURCHMAN and historian of Ecuador is honored by the South American republic's latest stamp issue—a set of four postage and four airmail stamps which mark the 100th anniversary of his birth. He is Frederico Gonzales Suarez, once Archibishop of Quito. In addition to his prominence as a church leader, Archibishop Suarez also wrote a history of Ecuador. The Archibishop is pictured on the postage values, which are 10 centavos

"Here's the way it works," Greig explained. "A British stamp dealer who wants to send a batch of stamps to a New York dealer, must apply for a permit, stating the value and specifications of the stamps. If expert examination shows the stamps are not worth any more than he has stated, he'll get the permit. Then we follow the transaction through and make certain that payment is made on that value."

"If the British dealer wants to import stamps from the United States or Canada, he won't get a permit because that would mean dollars going abroad to pay for them."

Stamps can be imported from or exported to the "sterling countries." British colonies and dominions except Canada, in which the currency is linked to the British pound. Even this commerce is limited, however, for no stamp valued at more than £5 ($20) may be exported.

The season's final meeting of the College Club will be held at the YWCA Saturday evening. Ben Allen Williamson, city editor of the Cleveland Press will speak on "The Newspaper's Responsibility".

Farm Labor Office Seeks To Determine Needs In the Area

Farmers of Warren county who plan to use high school boys and girls as "live-in" during the summer months are urged to file applications promptly with the Emergency Farm Labor office at 220 Liberty street.

"Unless we know how many are needed and where they are to be placed we cannot obtain efficient recruitment before school closes."

Little items, like sleeping arrangements, meals, clothing, and free time, can become important factors between the youths and the farmer, he pointed out.

At the same time he renewed his appeal for high school students to consider helping on nearby farms this summer as a "real contribution to the war effort," explaining that "production of food is a vital war responsibility." He also pointed out that unless boys and girls of high school age volunteer to meet the acute shortage in agricultural labor this summer, a serious shortage of food for both civilians and military needs can develop.

Recruiting of all kinds of volunteer help, both for the entire summer season and also for seasonal work, has begun. Applications also are being sought among older volunteers willing to help on nearby farms.

After 15 years' dosing now eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN™

Constipated? Given up hope of finding lasting, gentle relief? Then read this unsolicited letter:

"I am a rural letter carrier. For more than 15 years I used a laxative every night. About a year ago I met a friend and friend suggested that I try KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. I did so—with the result that I have not taken a pill since. I eat ALL-BRAN generously every day. I find it a great help." John H. Martin, Westminster, Maryland.

How can such helpful results come about? Scientists say one common cause of constipation is lack of sufficient "cellulosic" elements in the diet—and KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of these important elements. They help the friendly flora to fluff up and prepare the colonic contents for easy, natural elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative, but a natural, gentle-acting, "regulating" FOOD.

If your constipation is this kind, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly, as a cereal or in several muffins. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't get help, too. Insist on the genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

Writes About German Camp

Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. G. Johnson, 101 Dartmouth street, have received this week a letter written March 10 by their son, Sgt. Richard D. Johnson, who is being held as a prisoner of war in Germany.

He writes that he is being treated well by the Germans. He also provided further details concerning the accident which befell the large bomber and crew of ten men shot down on February 24 over enemy territory, when all were taken prisoner.

In the prison, young Dick, who is a former Times-Mirror carrier boy, has met several other American acquaintances.

Youngsville BPW Sponsors Social Of Unusual Type

Youngsville, May 10.—There were many guests Monday evening when the Business and Professional Women's Club entertained with an unusual community party at the Grange Hall, extending special invitations to interested friends and to the public.

The early evening was devoted to games on small tables occupying the entire first floor of the hall, cards and Chinese Checkers leading the list of preferences.

Following this, there was an auction of articles brought by members, many representing the handiwork of individuals. There were aprons, doilies, embroidered pillow cases and many other articles of needlecraft or other hand work. A number of the ladies offered their own baking of cakes, rolls and French pastries. Articles purchased from local business places and choice articles in the family as vases, pictures, a small electric stove were sold. Perhaps the livestock caused the greatest interest and included two little pigs feeding from a bottle and two small kittens with good ancestors.

By special arrangement a beautiful hooked rug had a part in the program. Auctioneers who gave clever remarks along with their bargains were Fernand Hubert, and Glenn Bradway.

Following the auction, guests were invited to the Grange dining room where, from a flower centered buffet table, a luncheon of cake and coffee was served.

Miss Goldie Hill, the president and all members of her efficient committees are to be congratulated on this party which proved a great success, both socially and financially.

Automobile bumpers were introduced in 1906.

Jamestown Male Chorus Singing In Local Church

Another special event is announced today for National Music Week, a concert to be given at 8 p. m. Thursday in Bethlehem Congregational church by the Male Chorus of the Zion Mission church of Jamestown.

This chorus was organized in 1909 and has been in existence since then, one of the charter members being still active in the organization. The late N. R. Goranson, father of the present director, was the first leader and in 1913 his son, Arthur Goranson, took over the directorship after his father's death. Except for a period of about three years, Mr. Goranson has continued as director. Mr. Goranson is well known in Warren, being bandmaster and music teacher in the Jamestown public schools.

A varied program will be presented, including sacred concert numbers, a negro spiritual group and also a Swedish group.

A silver offering will be taken and the public is most cordially invited.

Time Approaching For Presentation Of Mystery-Play

Players Club officials are anticipating another busy time when the box office at the Woman's Club opens at five o'clock this evening in preparation for the Thursday and Friday night performance of Lawrence Riley's "Time to Kill".

Committee members will be on hand until nine o'clock and those unable to call in person may make their reservations by calling 776, the Special Players' telephone number.

At the preliminary dress rehearsal held Monday evening, final decisions were made concerning apparel to be worn in the play, the costuming being in the hands of Mrs. Richard Smith and Mrs. Williams Rice. The complete dress rehearsal, with costumes, make-up and all properties, accented the cast last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Johnston have had the task of assembling the properties for the spring production and Robert Wilder has the difficult problems of light control for the mystery play are in hand. Fern Mostert, book holder, is in charge of ringing telephones and doorbells and watches and script—just in case there should be need of prompting. Mrs. Allison Wade is chairman for ushers.

Antlerless Deer Season May Be Deferred Until After War

Harrisburg, May 10.—(P)—Declaration of an antlerless deer season in Pennsylvania has been deferred by the State Game Commission in the hope that returning service men will have an opportunity to participate in it.

The commission, in an announcement issued by Ross L. Leffler, commission president, explained the action was taken "even though a season was recommended for a few counties this year" and there are indications a state-wide antlerless deer season will be necessary next year.

Killing of does and young bucks without horns was legal for three days last December in Tioga, McKean,
Lycoming, Sullivan, Warren,
Cameron and Potter counties, a total of 50,000 special $1 permits being issued to sportsmen to hunt those counties. A similar season declared for Clinton county

Dead Deer Litter Woods Say Fishermen

Fishermen out in the wild lands of the county bring in reports that dead deer are found to be plentiful and that the carcasses have been partially devoured by foxes and other animals. Guy McCloskey in a recent trip on the South Branch of the East Branch reports that he counted a large number of dead deer while fishing the stream and was greatly surprised that so many were in sight. Other pipe line workers and others also report numbers of dead deer in the woods along streams.

It is the supposition that deer hunters last fall would wound an animal and when it ran too far away for them to follow they would shoot another animal and let the first die in the woods. Inspection of a number of the bodies bear out this theory as most of them contain bullet holes where the animals had been wounded.

Plans formulated within the minds of the Field and Stream Club members during the winter months for an extensive program of food planting were realized on Sunday May 7 when a representative group of club members under the expert guidance of George Burdick, land manager for the State Game Commission trekked to State Game Lands on Miles Run in the vicinity of Pittfield for a day of planting.

Someone has said that, given an ample supply of food and cover, wild game will stand a better than even chance of survival. If this is true the more than 6000 seedlings, of mulberry, wild rose, osage orange, dogwood and hawthorne should provide in years to follow a fertile feeding ground for small game in that area. This project is a vital link in the overall program of the Field and Stream Club whose primary objects are the conservation, propagation and protection of our fish and game.

Other days will see other plantings in other places with more pleasant days afield and tasty lunches prepared by that above-fear committee headed by Frank Reese. In this connection all members are urged to attend the regular meeting on May 11 at the Y. M. C. A. at which time the matter of grain plot planting in the refuge areas near Chandlers Valley will be discussed. Three reels of motion pictures will also be shown by courtesy of the Atlantic Refining Company.

Local Guard Unit Seeks 20 Men To Fill Roster Before Going to Summer Encampment

Twenty men short of the quota desired before going to camp at Indianantown Gap, July 15th through the 22d, Company I, 16th Infantry, Third Battalion, held the weekly drill last evening at the State Armory.

Captain James V. Scalise, in charge of the local unit, was in charge, and during the evening urged that a special plea be made for men between the ages of 17 and 30 to enlist immediately, so that they may have the advantage of the special training that is being given preliminary to the encampment. He stated that 4-P's and ex-servicemen, in addition to men who have had at least four months before entry into the Federal Service, are especially desired. Enlistments are being taken at the Armory Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 7:30 until 9:00 o'clock.

The entire 16th Regiment will go to camp in July. The 10th Infantry, from Pittsburgh, will be at Indianantown for the first period from July 1st to 8th. It was thought at first that all regiments of the state could go to camp at the same time, but arrangements could not be perfected, and accordingly each regiment will go at the designated times.

The 16th is commanded by Lt. Col. Earl D. McCrea and comprises companies stationed at Kane, Bradford, Warren, Oil City, Franklin, Erie, Corry, Meadville, New Castle and New Brighton. Headquarters of the Third Battalion of the 16th Infantry are located at Warren with Maj. Ar-

All men interested are urged to apply at the State Armory any Tuesday or Thursday evening.

Vixen Tried To Save Pups In Rock Nest

Mother love was evidenced yesterday in a vixen which boldly came out on the woods road being travelled by Gordon Norton of Tidioute who was timber cruising north of Clarendon and barked at him. Norton for a time thought the fox had an attack of rabies so bold was it approaching within a few feet of Norton and a companion. Then it would circle about him and get up on a rock and bark at him just like a dog. The animal kept up the barking for some time and finally disappeared into the woods. Norton who buys up ash for baseball bats on his return to headquarters in the woods told an employee about the occurrence.

The employe, Charles Wilson, took a .22 calibre rifle and went back to where the vixen had appeared. As he approached he heard her bark again but could not see her. Feeling sure that she had whelps in a nest nearby he waited quietly watching a rocky place where he thought she had her den. Sure enough his patience was rewarded and soon a small nose appeared followed by a small body. The animal was shot and then another appeared and it too was shot. No trace of the vixen appeared and after waiting for a time Wilson gathered up the pups and went back to camp.

Old woodsmen claim that this is the first time they ever heard of a fox acting in such a manner as they usually run and try to lead the hunters away from their den.

If there are signs or rust on a mild scouring powder and hot water, dry well with a soft, clean cloth, and apply a thin coating of hot melted paraffin.

CORYDON

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Mann, Lander, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kraft.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whyte were Saturday visitors in Warren.

Through a copy of a Salamanca, N. Y., daily paper, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tingwall, 6 Rollins street, have received the following news concerning a nephew who formerly lived here:

Second Lieut. Robert L. Tingwall, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Clarence L. Tingwall, Summit street, who is serving as an aerial observer with the 7th Army Air Force on the Gilbert Islands, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal.

The Salamanca Lieutenant, who has been overseas since last October, was on patrol and reconnaissance duty before being assigned to a bomber squadron. He participated in the bombing of the Marshall Islands.

Enlisting in the U. S. Army March 4, 1942, Lieut. Tingwall was selected to attend the aerial observer section of the infantry officer candidate school at Fort Benning, Ga., in January, 1943, and was commissioned the following April.

Before leaving for overseas he was stationed at Harlingen Field, Texas.

His brother, Sgt. Theodore L. Tingwall, is serving in England and his father, at present, is in North Africa.

Middle East Baptists In Local Session

The Calvary Baptist church here was host on Saturday afternoon for the midyear meeting of the executive board of the Baptist Middle East Conference. Fourteen members and four visitors, including six pastors, were in attendance to represent the eight Conference churches: Akron, Cleveland, and Youngstown, O.; Jamestown, N. Y.; McKeesport, Lanse, Erie and Warren.

Tentative plans and a program were outlined for the next annual meeting to be held in the McNaughton street church in Akron on August 31-September 3.

Rev. Lester Thompson, of McKeesport, succeeds to the office of corresponding secretary left vacant by the resignation of Rev. George Magnuson, of Youngsville, who has filled that office for the past six years and who is moving to Davenport, Iowa, next month.

Rev. V. E. Hagberg, of Jamestown, will serve as chairman of the board to succeed Pastor Martin Hamlin, who leaves Calvary Baptist church soon to go to California.

Women of the Dorcas Missionary Society served lunch and supper to the delegates and visitors.

Words of appreciation and farewell were spoken by various members of the board to both Rev. Magnuson and Pastor Hamlin.

"Doom of a Sleeve . . ."

Yes, even in 1896, the year the Metzger-Wright Co came into being, fashion was fickle and even the ladies with spindly arms had to bow to her dictates. In the forty-eight years of its life, this store has served as the authoritative interpreter of styles and style change, not only in Warren but throughout this section of the State.

During the nearly five decades of our existence we have earnestly sought to maintain a standard of quality in all our merchandising operations. The growth of the cheap, standardized store, with its built-down-to-a-price goods, has not changed our policy. We have always chosen those lines of merchandise which seemed foremost in their particular fields, both as to serviceability and design.

That policy, deliberately chosen by the heads of this enterprise when they were "young in the business," has proved a sound one. No store could survive forty-eight years of varying business fortune—years of war, years of prosperity, years of depression, years of panic, years of growth, years of decay—unless its basic philosophy was essentially sound. That policy we shall continue to maintain today, tomorrow, next month, next year. It is "our way of doing business."

This year, in view of the request of the War Production Board for the discontinuance of special promotions, there will be no 48th Anniversary Sale (for the first time in our history.) But there will be the continued day-by-day service to the people of this area; the continuous effort to find the best and most dependable merchandise that can be secured, in spite of wartime conditions; the determination to serve as a conscientious purchasing agent in the wholesale markets of the nation for our friends and customers.

The War Production Board specifically exempts customary Clearance events from its restrictions. Therefore, since much of our previous Anniversary promotion was of a Clearance character, we are offering many hundreds of such items during this ten-day period. All of them are characteristic Metzger-Wright goods—the kind we like to sell—the kind you like to buy. All are offered at unusual Clearance reductions.

AXIS REPORTED STRIVING TO PLUG WEST WALL DEFENSES

Climax in D-Day Preparations Seen In Air Offensive

Fourth Anniversary of Nazi Drive Through the Low Countries Finds Gigantic British-American Offensive Unchecked

THREE IMPORTANT NEW PHASES ARE NOTED

By the Associated Press

London, May 10—(AP)—The Germans were reported striving hastily to tighten up their shaken western defenses on this fourth anniversary of the Nazi drive through the low countries as the gigantic British-American air campaign developed new aspects pointing toward a climax in preparation for invasion D-Day.

Thus the war in the west had swung in a full cycle, reversing the position of May 10, 1940 when the Germans, supreme in the air and on the ground, sent their legions crashing into Belgium and the Netherlands in the all-conquering blitzkrieg which led quickly to Dunkerque and the collapse of France.

With conclusive defeat in the air staring him in the face, Adolf Hitler has designated 29-year-old Maj. Gen. Oberst Pelz to command German air forces in the west and ordered him to assemble a force to combat the impending Allied invasion, said reliable advices from underground Europe.

Pelz, looked upon as an air genius and a prime favorite of Hitler, was given the task of keeping together a force to strike back at the invasion fleets—no matter what damage the homeland suffers in the meantime.

No matter what the Germans do, even the most conservative American and British air leaders are agreed the Allies will win full control of the air within seven to 10 days after the invasion starts.

In addition to the enormous acceleration in Allied attacks—in the first 10 days of this month there has been almost as much activity as in the two previous months—there were at least three new phases noted:

These were (1) the RAF's new attacks against German ammunition dumps and other critical concentrations, (2) the two-ply tactical bombing of both railroad junctions and airfields, and (3) the speeded up drive against railroads and bridges.

The campaign against continental air fields was aimed not only at combat planes but against aerial troop transport, for which the Germans have been famous.

It seemed reasonable to presume the Allied high command was repeating the process of preparation used in North Africa, where the big push was not started until the Germans' reinforcement and supply lines were wrecked or in a position where they could be wrecked shortly.

This condition, still uncrystallized, seemed to be one of the key factors in determination of the exact day for invasion.

Broadcasting a promise of deliverance to her people, Queen Wilhelmina of The Netherlands, anticipating a return to her country, said she would take a brief rest "in order to be fresh and strong for the moment when you will need me."

Belgian Premier Hubert Pierlot declared that "with all her soul and all her strength Belgium awaits the moment to take part with the United Nations in their gigantic and victorious effort."

ADMIRAL ON TRIAL

Algiers, May 10—(AP)—Admiral Edmond Derrien, former commander of French naval forces in Tunis, goes on trial for his life before a special French military tribunal today on charges that he turned that Mediterranean fortress over to the Germans after the American landings in North Africa, in November, 1942.

Large Audience Enjoys Grade School Music Week Concert

Warren public school music groups' observation of National Music Week got off to a good start Tuesday night when a large audience of parents and interested friends assembled in the gym at Beatty school for the concert given by grade school organizations.

The well presented and much enjoyed program was the work of the following organizations: Senior school rhythm band, McClintock first grade singers, East street grade three chorus, Johnson school grade four chorus, McClintock grade two rhythm band, Home street fifth grade chorus, Lacy school seventh grade chorus, Lacy school seventh grade chorus, South street grades three and four dance groups, and combined sixth and six.

NO RULING ON LEGALITY OF WARD SEIZURE

CIO ASKS EXTENSION

Chicago, May 10—(AP)—Federal Judge William H. Holly today dropped injunction litigation stemming seizure of Montgomery Ward and Company Chicago properties without ruling on legality of the federal action in taking possession.

The court told company and government counsel that he "considered the case dismissed" but would rule Friday on whether it should be recorded as dismissed with or without prejudice.

Judge Holly said he would not rule on legality of the seizure because "events have transpired which apparently have taken the case out of my hands."

Subsequently the judge told reporters he had ordered destroyed all copies of the decision he had been prepared to issue today in the injunction case. He said he "regretted having to do so," having spent a great deal of time studying the evidence and arguments submitted by government and company lawyers and preparing the ruling.

When Judge Holly said "there is nothing before me," Harold A. Smith, Ward attorney, said "how about the restraining order—the government has been operating under it, we've got to have a ruling on that."

When the judge replied that the property was back in the hands of the company and the government had moved out, Smith asked "what about this lawsuit?" referring to the temporary injunction petition.

Judge Holly said that he considered the case dismissed but that he would issue an order Friday on the question of dismissing it with or without prejudice.

The company properties are back in the hands of its management, Judge Holly said, and it is a well established fact that federal courts are not required to rule "on a moot question."

The Chicago plant was in government possession from April 26 until yesterday when Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones turned it back to the company.

The jurist made this statement after the government relinquished possession of the company's Chicago units and the properties were turned back to Board Chairman Sewell Avery.

A CIO union won a collective bargaining election at the plants last night, and followed up with a demand upon the War Labor

Eighth Army Thrusts Deep Wedge In Enemy Territory

By NOLAND NORGAARD

Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 10—(P)—Still pursuing with drawing German forces, Eighth Army troops have thrust a wedge deep into enemy territory along Italy's mountainous backbone and at last report were driving directly toward the German base at Sulmona, it was announced today.

Front advices indicated there was little or no opposition, although the Germans were said to be carrying out extensive demolitions.

A communiqué announced Allied troops had entered the town of Palena, on the little Aventino river 25 miles inland from the Adriatic and 11 miles southeast of the mountain villages of Fallasoso, seven miles northeast of Palena and San Angelo, 12 miles southeast.

The Eighth Army forces also seized high ground near the hamlet in 1921.

Abolition of the F.S.A. Suggested

Washington, May 10—(P)—Abolition of the Farm Security Administration was recommended by a special house committee today in a report which accused the agency of controlling its clients to the extent of telling the borrower how to raise his children and "how to plan his home life."

The FSA, the committee said, "has not been wisely administered and has been used as an experimental station of un-American ideas and economic and social theories of little or questionable value."

The committee, headed by Rep. Cooley (D-N.C.), emphasized that its criticism applied to the administration of Rexford Guy Tugwell and C. B. Baldwin. It commanded the recently-appointed administrator, Frank Hancock, for having made "substantial and worthwhile changes in both policies and personnel."

grade choruses of Lacy, South Johnson, East and McClintock buildings.

At the South street school this afternoon, a good sized audience enjoyed an operetta-play called "Uncle Sam's Visit," in which every child in school had a part. Speaking roles were taken as follows: Uncle Sam, Eugene Rowland; Miss Liberty, Diana DeMarco; The Old Woman Who Lives in a Shoe, Barbara Anderson; The Boy, Larry Ruark.

Theme of the presentation is a visit by Uncle Sam and Miss Liberty to the Old Woman and their introduction to Health Land by the first grade; Mother Goose Land, second grade; and the foreign nations with their songs and dances, grades three, four, five and six.

The other Dublin newspapers denounced the government's move.

Dublin, Eire, May 10—(P)—A first class political fight was developed in Eire today as Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's opponents accused him of using dictatorial and dangerous tactics in ordering a rush national election for May 30—the country's second within a year—as a result of the defeat of his domestic transport bill in the house yesterday.

Neither the war nor the country's neutrality is an issue in the right, however.

The Irish Free Press, the organ of de Valera's Fianna Fail Party, declared his opponents "must have decided to show that they are completely devoid of any sense of responsibility" by beating the bill and said the national interest demanded stability and a majority government.

At present the government has only a minority in the lower chamber, the Dail Eireann, and the independents hold the balance of power.

The other Dublin newspapers denounced the government's move.

Chungking, May 10—(P)—Chinese forces have all but lost their grip on the north-south Peiping-Hankow railway in Honan province the Chinese high command indicated today.

Two strong Japanese columns were reported less than 14 miles from a juncture as they struck from the south from Chumtien and entered the railway town of Shuping from the north. The invaders from Chumtien were said to have gained several miles, appreciably narrowing the 14-mile gap.

The invaders pressing toward the ancient Honan province city of Loyang, however, were said to have been checked east of the Yi river. The nearest Japanese forces several days ago were reported only six miles from Loyang.

Danville, May 10—(P)—A search was continued today for John Mitchell, 37, of Lycoming county, one of six men described as "potentially homicidal," who escaped Monday night from the turmoil of the other five—without resistance—was announced by state and local police last night.

Hospital records show that Mitchell was transferred to the institution from the Eastern State Penitentiary.

Crystal City, Texas, May 10—(P)—A confession that he killed his wife, Mrs. Louise Villegos, by hitting her in the back of the head with his fist and shipped her body in a trunk from Chicago to Los Angeles has been signed by Soyo Villegos, 26, Deputy Sheriff Garrett Barnes said last night.

A trunk containing a woman's body was opened in Los Angeles last Friday. A waybill showed the trunk was sent from Chicago April 30 by a "John Lopez" to the same name there. No Los Angeles address was included. The waybill was marked "will call."

The body was packed in salt and various articles of clothing thrown over it. Trickling of melting salt caused a railway express clerk to notify authorities, who opened the trunk.

Barnes said Villegos was picked up in Crystal City on the advice of Chicago police.

Through fall of the Crimean peninsula was the name of Gen. Andrei I. Yermenko, whose independent maritime army struck 150 miles westward across the peninsula from Kerch and on April 19 reached Sevastopol's southern environs.

The omission suggested that Yermenko and his men might have been moved elsewhere in preparation for important new operations.

The order of the day was addressed jointly to Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin, whose Fourth Ukrainian Army took Sevastopol late yesterday in a final three-day plough through three deep German defense belts, and Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky, chief of the Red army general staff.

Through fall of the city the Soviet Black Sea fleet regained the second of two valuable ports from which to venture against Axis forces on Romania's coast, 200 miles to the west. The other is Odessa, 180 miles to the northwest, recaptured by the Russians April 10.

In the overall 31-day Crimean offensive, which the Tolbukhin and Yermenko armies ushered in April 8, at least 100,000 Germans and Romanians were believed killed or captured. Some 25,000 were said to have remained in the Sevastopol pocket as the Russian victory drive began Sunday. Many died trying to escape by sea, the Russians said.

German suicide corps were said to have clung to the last to three-storied defense works carved into the city's bluffs—caves that the Russians used as ammunition depots and defense headquarters in the 250-day siege of the port in 1941-42.

Arabian Line May Be Ace in Hole Later

New York, May 10—(P)—The Saudi-Arabian petroleum pipeline proposal appeared today, on the basis of the latest explanation by Petroleum Administrator Ickes, to represent primarily the U. S. government's ace-in-the-hole in an international oil supply poker game.

Commenting that the plan for a government-owned project is subject to "modification and improvement," Ickes told the Economic Club that shortly after the original announcement Britain sent representatives here for two weeks of discussions on world oil.

Wilkes-Barre, May 10—(P)—Circuit Judge Clarence W. Meadows piled up a formidable lead today over Rush D. Holt, former "boy senator" in West Virginia's Democratic gubernatorial primary, but the Republican race still remained in doubt.

Denison, Ia., May 10—(P)—A four-engine bomber from the Sioux City, Ia., army air base over sections of two states for four hours with no one aboard before crashing on the side of a ravine two miles northwest of here about 2 a.m. today.

The plane crashed more than 100 miles from where the 10 crew members and a bombardier instructor bailed out about 10 o'clock last night when fire broke out on the ship. The fire evidently burned itself out during the trip.

None of the fliers were injured seriously.

Residents of Carroll, 30 miles east of Denison, reported hearing a bomb爆 over the city shortly after midnight. It was flying so low, one resident said, "that he feared it was going to crash."

One engine and the four propellers were torn from the bomber when the plane remained away from their posts.

PRINTERS STILL ON STRIKE

Wilkes-Barre, May 10—(P)—For the third straight day, this city's only daily papers, Times-Leader Evening News and the Wilkes-Barre Record, failed to publish when the printers of both plants remained away from their posts.

Paramount Duty Now To Win The War Governor Declares

Erie, May 10—(P)—Governor Martin, who came here today with most of his cabinet to give northwestern Pennsylvania a first-hand view of the state government, declared the paramount duty now is to win the war and "everything else can wait."

"Nothing matters—whether it be wages or profits, social progress or personal ambitions—if we lose this war," he said in a prepared address at a luncheon, which was part of a full day's program.

"To make more weapons, to grow more food, to maintain necessary services in our communities and to speed up production are the great and paramount duties."

Attempts Gas Route Suicide But Is Foiled

John Upgraft, of Tiona, who is also known in the community as John Smith, is under observation and care today in Warren General Hospital as the result of what is termed by investigating officials as an attempted suicide.

Upgraft, aged about 70 years and under the care of a physician for a chronic ailment lives alone. A neighbor, Lonnie Winger, who comes frequently to perform errands, called at the home about two o'clock Tuesday afternoon and receiving no answer at the front door, entered the building through a shed at the rear.

He discovered the occupant had placed a blanket over himself in such manner that he was inhaling rapidly fumes from a nearby gas stove to which he had attached a length of hose.

Winger notified the Pennsylvania State Police barracks here and Upgraft was removed to Warren General Hospital in the Peterson ambulance.

At the hospital today, it is stated his condition is considered poor.

No immediate family has been located by the investigating police officer.

MOTOR WAS BURNED

A seven and one-half horse power motor at the Lewis Meat Market burned out this morning at 6:57 and a fire alarm resulted. The fire was soon stopped. The motor is used for the operation of the cooling system in the market and it is thought that it stuck when automatically turned on, became overheated and burned. The loss is quite a heavy one as there will be some difficulty in replacing the motor at the present time. War time conditions make a motor of this type hard to secure.

It Happened In WARREN—48 YEARS AGO

This is the SIXTH of a series of pictures of Warren 48 years ago—in 1896—when life was more leisurely, entertainment more naive, and names-in-the-news recall the happy times of an earlier generation. The following are quoted from the Warren Evening Mirror, 1896:

A pair of bicycle trousers has been evolved which, by pulling a string, can be transformed from the knickerbocker to the long garment, and vice versa.

—by "the long garment" do they mean a pair of pants?

A boy asked his father the difference between knickerbockers and bloomers. "My boy," said he, "when they're cut so that you can't tell whether the wearer is coming toward you or going away from you, they are bloomers."

—knickerbockers a fairly skimpy job

Worn out, most likely—and he doesn't know it—and yet he wears the same boots on the street and at the office . . . —how's he going to get to the office if he doesn't go on the street?

Samples of patent medicine which were thrown into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Heible, South Side, were devoured by two children because of the sugar coating. The pills put the children to sleep. There was cause for alarm for a while, but the children have recovered from their feast.

Annual Anniversary Party Is Held By Metzger-Wright Co.

In honor of the forty-eighth birthday the Metzger-Wright Company entertained its personnel to a dinner at the Marconi Outing Club.

If the year were either 1942 or 1943, this would have been the time of the opening of the annual Anniversary Sale, but as William H. Wright, President of the company explained, this year the government has asked all stores to refrain from holding special events sales to stimulate buying, so for this year the Metzger-Wright Company has given up its Anniversary Sale.

Mr. Wright told of the happenings of the last year, how the store personnel had enlisted the different War Drives. In the Fourth War Loan it exceeded its quota of $15,000 by $45,500 making a grand total of sales made of $60,850. Mr. Wright said he was exceptionally proud of this showing and hoped that they could do even better in the Fifth War Loan Drive.

It was decided by the coworkers to send a message of goodwill to the two absent members in the service. A cablegram was dispatched to Sergeant Allan Johnson, somewhere in England, and a telegram to Pfc. Lewis Sadler in Michigan. These messages were composed by Miss Clara Weidert.

The first to receive the emblem was Claude Landers, buyer of shoes, who came to the Warren store from Sheffield in 1931 where he had been a valued executive since 1916. The next name to be revealed was that of Mrs. Leota Clark, who came to the store in 1934 as a cashier in the office later becoming personnel and advertising manager. Mrs. Margaret Wright was the third one to receive the Honor Emblem as the successor of Mrs. Minnie Wright. Mrs. Wright was at one time publicity and sales promotion director of the store.

After the awarding of the Honor Club emblems the business session ended and a social time was enjoyed by all those present.

Decision Made In Election At Thomas Plant

Philadelphia, May 10—(P)—Local 1328, International Association of Machinists, has been recognized by the Regional War Labor Board as the collective bargaining agency of all employees of the Thomas Flexible Coupling Co. at Warren.

In an opinion announced yesterday by RWLB Vice Chairman Alexander H. Fry, it was explained that the union won an election conducted by the RWLB last June 7 by a vote of 52 to 33. This vote followed an earlier consent election in which the vote was 41 to 37 against the union.

The union filed objections, charging the company had improperly influenced the election, and a second ballot resulted.

In answer to the company contention that the NWLB was without jurisdiction, Frey cited a number of cases in which board and regional boards had assumed jurisdiction. He declared the company's position "arbitrary, likely to interrupt production, and motivated by desire to postpone bargaining with the union."

"This procedural procrastination is a peacetime luxury which must be sacrificed in the interests of war production," the RWLB concluded.

New Pastor Is Tendered Fine Reception

St. Paul's Lutheran church was filled with members and friends last evening for the reception and welcome extended the new pastor, Rev. Nore Gustafson, and his family, recently arrived from Stamford, Conn.

The program, presented in the church auditorium, opened with a hymn, "The Church's One Foundation", followed by Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. Wallace Johnson, of Youngsville, who also pronounced the benediction at its close.

A string trio composed of Mrs. Frederick Olson, Mrs. Emmett Morrison and Miss Charlotte Erickson was accompanied by Mrs. Emil Jacobson for a special selection and was augmented later by Mrs. Stuart Perrin for music during the social hour.

Words of welcome were extended by the former supply pastor, Rev. E. P. Nordgren, of Kane; by Hilding Lundahl for the board of administration; by Harold Passinger, superintendent of the Sunday school; by Dr. H. A. Rinard, of First Lutheran parish; by Mrs. Harold T. Nelson for women's organizations of the parish.

Other special numbers included a contralto solo by Mrs. Everett Borg, singing "Bless This House" by Brahe; a vocal solo by Earl Erickson, "Come Ye Blessed" by Scott; piano-organ number, "The Swan" by Saint-Saens, played by Miss Signe Nordgren and Mrs. Jacobson. Rev. E. S. Carlson, of Emanuel Lutheran church in Tittusville, gave the principal address.

Mrs. Gustafson was presented a gift of flowers by Carol Louise Johnson and Ludwig Peterson, master of ceremonies, presented a gift to the new minister. Pastor Gustafson responded for himself and family.

After the closing hymn, all were invited to the dining room, where refreshments were served by wives of the board of administration, headed by Mrs. Emmett Ecklund.

HOUSEWIVES TAKE UNRATIONING CALMLY

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington says that housewives apparently haven't felt any urge—because of meat unrationing—to buy out the butcher shops.

The unrationing, except on beef steaks and roasts, went into effect a week ago.

Now, after reports from all its regional offices around the country, the War Food Administration (WFA) says there has been no great buying rush.

One reason given: Before unrationing, meat points generally had been low enough to allow most families sufficient meat. This forestalled a desire to splurge when points were removed.

But it seems likely that more meat will be consumed now than before it was point free. Able to get unrationed meat as they want it, housewives can spread red points on the rationed kind.

OPA says the total anticipated supply of meat for civilians in May is 25 per cent greater than a year ago.

Two things can throw the picture out of focus:

1. Meat distribution had been geared to a rationed supply. It takes about four weeks for meat to move from packing house to neighborhood butcher shop. Any large increased buying in one city could mean less meat generally for that city until the distribution system was able to cope with it.

This may be happening now in some places, although, as noted above, according to WFA it is not general.

2. If there was heavy demand in the mid-west, near the packing plants, the areas most distant from the plants might feel a pinch. For, if prices were fairly equal around the country, the packers could save shipping expenses by selling closer to home.

A TIME FOR PRAYER

(The Bradford Era)

Several weeks ago this newspaper suggested a nation-wide call to prayer for the success of the Allied armies. It suggested that clergymen issue a call to all citizens to gather at the hour of invasion for meditation and prayer during the greatest crisis in the history of our nation.

The idea, which originated in Warren, has spread across the nation. Clergymen in many sections of the country have endorsed the proposal and the mayor of York issued a proclamation to the people of his city calling upon them to gather in prayer at the beginning of the invasion of Europe.

The plan has been endorsed by the Assembly of the Commonwealth at its special session in Harrisburg.

This newspaper recommends to the clergymen of Bradford and McKean county a universal call to all citizens to gather in prayer. It further suggests that the air raid warning system be brought into service to inform the people when the Allied armies strike in order that they may gather in their respective houses of worship to ask God's blessing upon the armies of freedom in their efforts to liberate the oppressed and persecuted peoples under Axis domination.

COMPANY I NEEDS MEN

Company I, 16th Regiment, Third Battalion, is in need of twenty men to fill the quota required under Army regulations. Since men between 17 and 50, especially those in 4-F and others who may have had military training, are eligible, it would seem there should be no difficulty in recruiting the unit to full strength. All men interested are urged to report to the State Armory, Hickory street, Tuesday or Thursday evenings. Since the company is being drilled and shaped for the annual encampment in July, it is important that the roster be filled at once. Enlistment in the Guard provides an excellent opportunity for men not eligible for duty in the armed forces overseas to serve their country in a most important assignment. Here is a challenging invitation to men of Warren and vicinity. We are confident it will not go unheeded.

For Britons awaiting D-Day and eventual victory and peace this was a memorable anniversary. It was on May 10 four years ago that Winston-Churchill replaced the late Neville Chamberlain as prime minister and began leading them through the darker days that still were to come and finally onto the road to victory.

The Watch on the Rhine

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's announcement that he wants no part of the Republican nomination for President was not any surprise here.

His close military friends said immediately: "Of course, what do we tell you all along?" Political observers said: "Of course, what else could he do after his (political) drive was all messed up by well-meaning friends and circumstances over which he had no control."

The general's declaration has left no doubt, even in the minds of his staunchest supporters, that he has taken himself out of the presidential picture.

The effect that this second major defection in the ranks of GOP presidential possibilities will have on the nomination and maybe the election is important. With the now single exception of Lt. Cmdr. Harold E. Stassen, whose backers haven't given any indication of real strength yet, it leaves the field wide open to non-military men in both parties.

That is, unless the commander-in-chief is considered a military man. Most political observers don't consider him at all in that category, but admit that, if the votes of armed forces and those closely allied with them (wives, relatives and friends) count for anything, the advantage is likely to be with the commander-in-chief if no other military man is on the ticket.

Although withdrawal of MacArthur has left Dewey almost the only important candidate in the field, it could have the net effect of strengthening Dewey opposition. It may be presumed that both MacArthur and Willkie backers opposed Dewey. A coalition of these two groups might at least prevent the nomination of Dewey on an early ballot and defer it until some concessions had been made in their favor.

GEN. MACARTHUR has, in polls and opinions, been generally the first choice after Gov. Dewey

since the withdrawal of Wendell L. Willkie. With MacArthur following Willkie in writing himself off the slate of potential nominees, observers are confident that the Republican party now has no more than to pick a second man on the ticket. It's in an identical position now with the Democratic party—and it is merely whether the voters wish to vote for Roosevelt for a fourth term or Dewey for a first.

With nearly six months for the voters to mull over such a question, politicians feel that the vote in November is likely to be even more apathetic than was anticipated, a situation which might well result in an elected executive who wouldn't really represent the choice of the majority of the qualified voters.

THAT MacArthur's withdrawal leaves the field almost entirely to the governors. Including ex-Governor of Minnesota Stassen in that category, there isn't a prominently mentioned presidential or vice presidential candidate on the Republican front now who isn't one of their 26 state executives.

Although withdrawal of MacArthur has left Dewey almost the only important candidate in the field, it could have the net effect of strengthening Dewey opposition. It may be presumed that both MacArthur and Willkie backers opposed Dewey. A coalition of these two groups might at least prevent the nomination of Dewey on an early ballot and defer it until some concessions had been made in their favor.

GREAT BRITAIN'S program of mobilizing all of its monetary assets for its war effort involves even the stamp hobby, according to Cuthbert Greig, secretary of the British Philatelic Association. The association is made up of both dealers and collectors and seeks to safeguard the interests of the stamp hobby as a hobby.

In an interview given Henry W. Bagley, Associated Press correspondent in London, Greig said that since June, 1940, a committee of stamp experts from the B.P.A., acting for the Board of Trade, has completely controlled import and export of stamps in Britain. Every stamp transferred has to undergo expert examination and no stamp can be sent into or out of Britain without a permit.

"Here's the way it works," Greig explained. "A British stamp dealer who wants to send a batch of stamps to a New York dealer, must apply for a permit, stating the value and specifications of the stamps. If expert examination shows the stamps are not worth any more than he has stated, he'll get the permit. Then we follow the transaction through and make certain that payment is made on that dealer.

"If the British dealer wants to import stamps from the United States or Canada, he won't get a permit because that would mean dollars going abroad to pay for them."

Stamps can be imported from or exported to the "sterling countries," British colonies and dominions except Canada, in which the currency is linked to the British pound. Even this commerce is limited, however, for no stamp valued at more than £5 ($20) may be exported.

"STOPPED TAKING DAILY LAXATIVES"

"After 15 years' dosing now eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN"

Constipated? Given up hope of finding lasting, gentle relief? Then read this unsolicited letter:

"I am writing you because for more than 15 years I used a laxative every night. About a year and a half ago a good friend suggested that I try KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. I did so—with the result that I have not had to take any laxative since. ALL-BRAN generously every day. I find it a great help." John H. Martin, Westminster, Maryland.

How can such helpful results come about? Scientists say one common cause of constipation is lack of sufficient "cellulosic" elements in the diet—and KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of these important elements. They help the friendly flora to fluff up and prepare the colonic contents for easy, natural elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative, but a natural, gentle acting, "regulating" FOOD.

If your constipation is this kind, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly, as a cereal or in several muffins. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't get help, too. Insist on the genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

BPW Club Has Initiation-Installation And Plans For Birthday Party In June

Warren Business and Professional Women's Club members held their last regular business meeting of the season at the YWCA activities building last evening, making plans for the coming months, initiating new members and installing recently elected officers.

The membership and emblem committee, Ellen Thoreson, Callie Mead, Edna Thompson and Corinne Dean, was in charge of arrangements. President Louise Nelly opened the business session with reports from Elizabeth Brasington and Inez Leake and a word of appreciation to all who had helped in making the April 29 meeting of District One so successful. She also read a similar expression from the retiring district chairman, Adelaide de Malson, of Meadowlark.

Plans were made for the club's birthday party to be held in the form of a dinner and program June 2 in the YWCA. There was also some discussion concerning picnic plans for July and August.

Olive Archibald Huff, of the Warren Public Library staff, was unanimously voted to the membership and Eunice Alexander read a communication from the club's proteges at the Hoffman Home.

Assisting Miss Thoreson in the emblem ceremonial for initiation of Martha Lupold, Olive Phillips, Olive Huff, Mary Church, Viola Lindmark and Evelyn Wolstenholme were Violet Peterson, May Belle Bairstow, Eunice Alexander, Doris Peterson and Elizabeth Brasington.

Miss Mead, a past president, was in charge of installation of the following officers for next season: President, Miss Nelly; vice president, Ruth Fenderon; corresponding secretary, Elizabeth Lopez; recording secretary, Violet Peterson; treasurer, Miss Leake.

To conclude, the committee served refreshments.

Youngsville BPW Sponsors Social Of Unusual Type

Youngsville, May 10—There were many guests Monday evening when the Business and Professional Women's Club entertained with an unusual community party at the Grange Hall, extending special invitations to interested friends and to the public.

The early evening was devoted to games on small tables occupying the entire first floor of the hall, cards and Chinese Checkers leading the list of preferences.

Following this, there was an auction of articles brought by members, many representing the handwork of individuals. There were aprons, doilies, embroidered pillow cases and many other articles of needlecraft or other hand work. A number of the ladies offered their own baking of cakes, rolls and French waffles. Articles purchased from local business places and choice articles in the family as vases, pictures, a small electric stove were sold. Perhaps the livestock caused the greatest interest and included two little pigs feeding from a bottle and two small kittens with good ancestors.

By special arrangement a beautiful hooked rug had a part in the program. Auctioneers who gave clever remarks along with their bargains were Fernand Hubert, and Glenn Bradway.

Following the auction, guests were invited to the Grange dining room where, from a flower center, buffet table, a luncheon of cake and coffee was served.

Miss Goldie Hill, the president and all members of her efficient committees are to be congratulated on this party which proved a great success, both socially and financially.

Automobile bumpers were introduced in 1906.

Jamestown Male Chorus Singing In Local Church

Another special event is announced today for National Music Week, a concert to be given at 8 p. m. Thursday in Bethlehem Congregational church by the Male Chorus of the Zion Mission church of Jamestown.

This chorus was organized in 1909 and has been in existence since then, one of the charter members being still active in the organization. The late N. R. Goranson, father of the present director, was the first leader and in 1913 his son, Arthur Goranson, took over the directorship after his father's death. Except for a period of about three years, Mr. Goranson has continued as director. Mr. Goranson is well known in Warren, being bandmaster and music teacher in the Jamestown public schools.

A varied program will be presented, including sacred concert numbers, a negro spiritual group and also a Swedish group.

A silver offering will be taken and the public is most cordially invited.

Time Approaching For Presentation Of Mystery-Play

Players Club officials are anticipating another busy time when the box office at the Woman's Club opens at five o'clock this evening in preparation for the Thursday and Friday night performance of Lawrence Riley's "Time to Kill".

Committee members will be on hand until nine o'clock and those unable to call in person may make their reservations by calling 775, the Special Players' telephone number.

At the preliminary dress rehearsal, held Monday evening, final decisions were made concerning apparel to be worn in the play, the costuming being in the hands of Mrs. Richard Smith and Mrs. William Rice. The complete dress rehearsal, with costumes, make-up and all properties accounted for the cast last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Johnston have had the task of assembling the properties for the spring production and Robert Wilder has the difficult problems of light control for the mystery play are in hand. Fern Mostert, book holder, is in charge of ringing telephones and doorbells and watches and script—just in case there should be need of prompting. Mrs. Allison Wade is chairman for ushers.

A Tough Chestnut to Crack

By FRED HAYDEN
New York, May 10.—(AP)—Widener's proud and pretty, not content with wearing the richest derby in history, wants to replace that $65,000 chapeau with the rare triple crown of racing. But thousands of turfites who lined Jamaica's stands while

Dead Deer Litter Woods Say Fishermen

Fishermen out in the wild lands of the county bring in reports that dead deer are found to be plentiful and that the carcasses have been partially devoured by foxes and other animals. Guy McCloskey in a recent trip on the South Branch of the East Branch reports that he counted a large number of dead deer while fishing the stream and was greatly surprised that so many were in sight. Other pipe line workers and others also report numbers of dead deer in the woods along streams.

It is the supposition that deer hunters last fall would wound an animal and when it ran too far away for them to follow they would shoot another animal and let the first die in the woods. Inspection of a number of the bodies bear out this theory as most of them contain bullet holes where the animals had been wounded.

Sportsmen Planted Food Trees Sunday

Plans formulated within the minds of the Field and Stream Club members during the winter months for an extensive program of food planting were realized on Sunday May 7 when a representative group of club members under the expert guidance of George Burdick, land manager for the State Game Commission trekked to State Game Lands on Miles Run in the vicinity of Pittfield for a day of planting.

Someone has said that, given an ample supply of food and cover, wild game will stand a better than even chance of survival. If this be true the more than 6000 seedlings, of mulberry, wild rose, osage orange, dogwood and hawthorne should provide in years to follow a fertile feeding ground for small game in that area. This project is a vital link in the overall program of the Field and Stream Club whose primary objects are the conservation, propagation and protection of our fish and game.

Other days will see other plantings in other places with more pleasant days ahead and tasty lunches prepared by that above-fear committee headed by Frank Reese. In this connection all members are urged to attend the regular meeting on May 11 at the Y. M. C. A. at which time the matter of grain plot planting in the refuge areas near Chandlers Valley will be discussed. Three reels of motion pictures will also be shown by courtesy of the Atlantic Refining Company.

Antlerless Deer Season May Be Deferred Until After War

Harrisburg, May 10.—(AP)—Declaring of an antlerless deer season in Pennsylvania has been deferred by the State Game Commission in the hope that returning service men will have an opportunity to participate in it.

The commission, in an announcement issued by Ross L. Leffler, commission president, explained the action was taken "even though a season was recommended for a few counties this year" and there are indications a state-wide antlerless deer season will be necessary next year.

Killing of does and young bucks without horns was legal for three days last December in Tioga, McKean, Lycoming, Sullivan, Warren, Cameron and Potter counties, a total of 50,000 special $1 permits being issued to sportsmen in those counties. A similar season declared for Clinton county was abrogated by the commission when a majority of licensed hunters protested against it.

Game season dates announced officially by the commission are:

Small game, Nov. 1-30, bear, Nov. 27-30; deer, Dec. 1-16; snowshoe hares, Nov. 15-22; and raccoons, Oct. 23-Feb. 1, 1945.

Trapping seasons for fur-bearing animals: Minks, skunks and otters, Nov. 1-Feb. 1, 1945; muskrats, Dec. 1-Feb. 1, 1945; beavers, Feb. 15-March 1, 1945; and opossums, unprotected until Sept. 30, 1945. The trapping season for raccoons, Nov. 1-Feb. 1, 1945.

Daily or seasonal bag limits unchanged except for raccoons, for which the daily bag was increased from three to four and the seasonal limit from 15 to 20.

The commission also announced the release of 2,000 South Dakota pheasants in northern tier counties.

Men To Fill Roster Before Going to Summer Encampment

Twenty men short of the quota desired before going to camp at Indianantown Gap, July 15th through the 22d, Company I, 16th Infantry, Third Battalion, held the weekly drill last evening at the State Armory.

Captain James V. Scalise, in charge of the local unit, was in charge and during the evening urged that a special plea be made for men between the ages of 17 and 30 to enlist immediately so that they may have the advantage of the special training that is being given preliminary to the encampment. He stated that 4-F's and ex-service men, in addition to men who have had at least four months before entry into the Federal Service, are especially desired. Enlistments are being taken at the Armory Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 7:30 until 9:00 o'clock.

The entire 16th Regiment will go to camp in July. The 10th Infantry, from Pittsburgh, will be at Indianantown for the first period from July 1st to 8th. It was thought at first that all regiments of the state would go to camp at the same time, but arrangements could not be perfected, and accordingly each regiment will go at the designated times.

The 16th is commanded by Lt. Col. Earl D. McCrea and comprises companies stationed at Kane, Bradford, Warren, Oil City, Franklin, Erie, Corry, Meadville, New Castle and New Brighton. Headquarters of the Third Battalion of the 16th Infantry are located at Warren with Maj. Ar-

All men interested are urged to apply at the State Armory any Tuesday or Thursday evening.

Plans are reported progressing nicely for the School Music Boosters "tag day" which will be staged on the streets of Warren on Saturday in the interests of the public school music organizations.

PAC PLANS SWIM
FOR THE TAGGERS

Attention of all young people who will be engaged in selling Booster Tags on Saturday is called to a special swim period arranged for their enjoyment at the YM on Saturday night by the Presbyterian Activities Club. There will be two periods, one beginning at 7:30 o'clock for younger folks, the second, as soon as those on the streets have finished their tag selling task.

Ways and means committee members, in charge of this phase of the club's activities, have secured a room in the Allen Block, next to Western Union office, as tag day headquarters and will have representatives in attendance there all day Saturday.

Former Local Officer Given DFC, Medal

Through a copy of a Salamanca, N. Y., daily paper, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tingwall, 6 Rollins street, have received the following news concerning a nephew who formerly lived here:

Second Lieut. Robert L. Tingwall, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Clarence L. Tingwall, Summit street, who is serving as an aerial observer with the 7th Army Air Force on the Gilbert Islands, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal.

The Salamanca lieutenant, who has been overseas since last October, was on patrol and reconnaissance duty before being assigned to a bomber squadron. He participated in the bombing of the Marshall Islands.

Enlisting in the U. S. Army March 4, 1942, Lieut. Tingwall was selected to attend the aerial observer section of the infantry officer candidate school at Fort Benning, Ga., in January, 1943, and was commissioned the following April.

Before leaving for overseas he was stationed at Harlington Field, Texas.

His brother, Sgt. Theodore L. Tingwall, is serving in England and his father, at present, is in North Africa.

Vixen Tried To Save Pups In Rock Nest

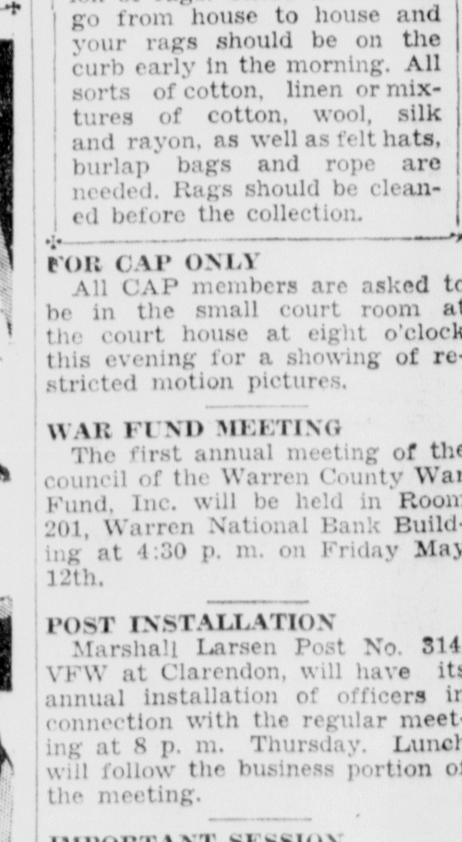

Mother love was evidenced yesterday in a vixen which boldly came out on the woods road being travelled by Gordon Norton, of Tidioute who was timber cruising north of Clarendon and barked at him. Norton for a time thought the fox had an attack of rabies so bold was it approaching within a few feet of Norton and a companion. Then it would circle about him and get up on a rock and bark at him just like a dog. The animal kept up the barking for some time and finally disappeared into the woods. Norton who buys up ash for baseball bats on his return to headquarters in the woods told an employee about the occurrence.

The employee, Charles Wilson, took a .22 calibre rifle and went back to where the vixen had appeared. As he approached he heard her bark again but could not see her. Feeling sure that she had whelps in a nest nearby he waited quietly watching a rocky place where he thought she had her den. Sure enough, his patience was rewarded and soon a small nose appeared followed by a small body. The animal was shot and then another appeared and it too was shot. No trace of the vixen appeared and after waiting for a time Wilson gathered up the pups and went back to camp.

Old woodsmen claim that this is the first time they ever heard of a fox acting in such a manner as they usually run and try to lead the hunters away from their den.

If there are signs or rust on with a mild scouring powder and hot water, dry well with a soft, clean cloth, and apply a thin coating of hot melted paraffin.

"Doom of a Sleeve . . ."

Yes, even in 1896, the year the Metzger-Wright Co came into being, fashion was fickle and even the ladies with spindly arms had to bow to her dictates. In the forty-eight years of its life, this store has served as the authoritative interpreter of styles and style change, not only in Warren but throughout this section of the State.

During the nearly five decades of our existence we have earnestly sought to maintain a standard of quality in all our merchandising operations. The growth of the cheap, standardized store, with its built-down-to-a-price goods, has not changed our policy. We have always chosen those lines of merchandise which seemed foremost in their particular fields, both as to serviceability and design.

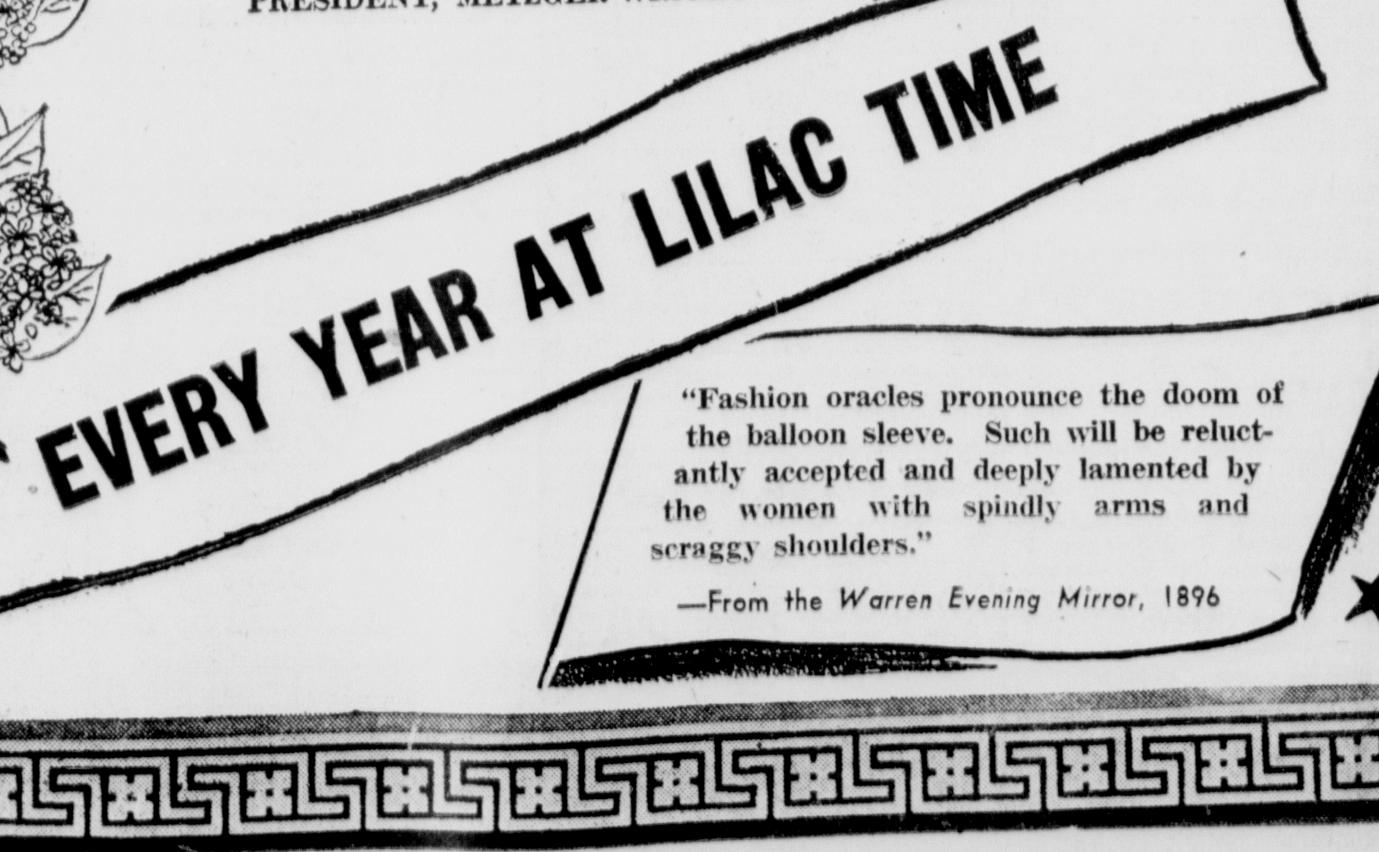

That policy, deliberately chosen by the heads of this enterprise when they were "young in the business," has proved a sound one. No store could survive forty-eight years of varying business fortune—years of war, years of prosperity, years of depression, years of panic, years of growth, years of decay—unless its basic philosophy was essentially sound. That policy we shall continue to maintain today, tomorrow, next month, next year. It is "our way of doing business."

This year, in view of the request of the War Production Board for the discontinuance of special promotions, there will be no 48th Anniversary Sale (for the first time in our history.) But there will be the continued day-by-day service to the people of this area; the continuous effort to find the best and most dependable merchandise that can be secured, in spite of wartime conditions; the determination to serve as a conscientious purchasing agent in the wholesale markets of the nation for our friends and customers.

The War Production Board specifically exempts customary Clearance events from its restrictions. Therefore, since much of our previous Anniversary promotion was of a Clearance character, we are offering many hundreds of such items during this ten-day period. All of them are characteristic Metzger-Wright goods—the kind we like to sell—the kind you like to buy. All are offered at unusual Clearance reductions.

PRESIDENT, METZGER-WRIGHT CO

"Fashion oracles pronounce the doom of the balloon sleeve. Such will be reluctantly accepted and deeply lamented by the women with spindly arms and scraggy shoulders."
